

A FILM BY MAZHAR Q KAMRAN

SAFAR MEIN SHEHER

ABOUT THE FILM

A designer from Singapore is on the way to her father's wedding.

A house-help is on her day off.

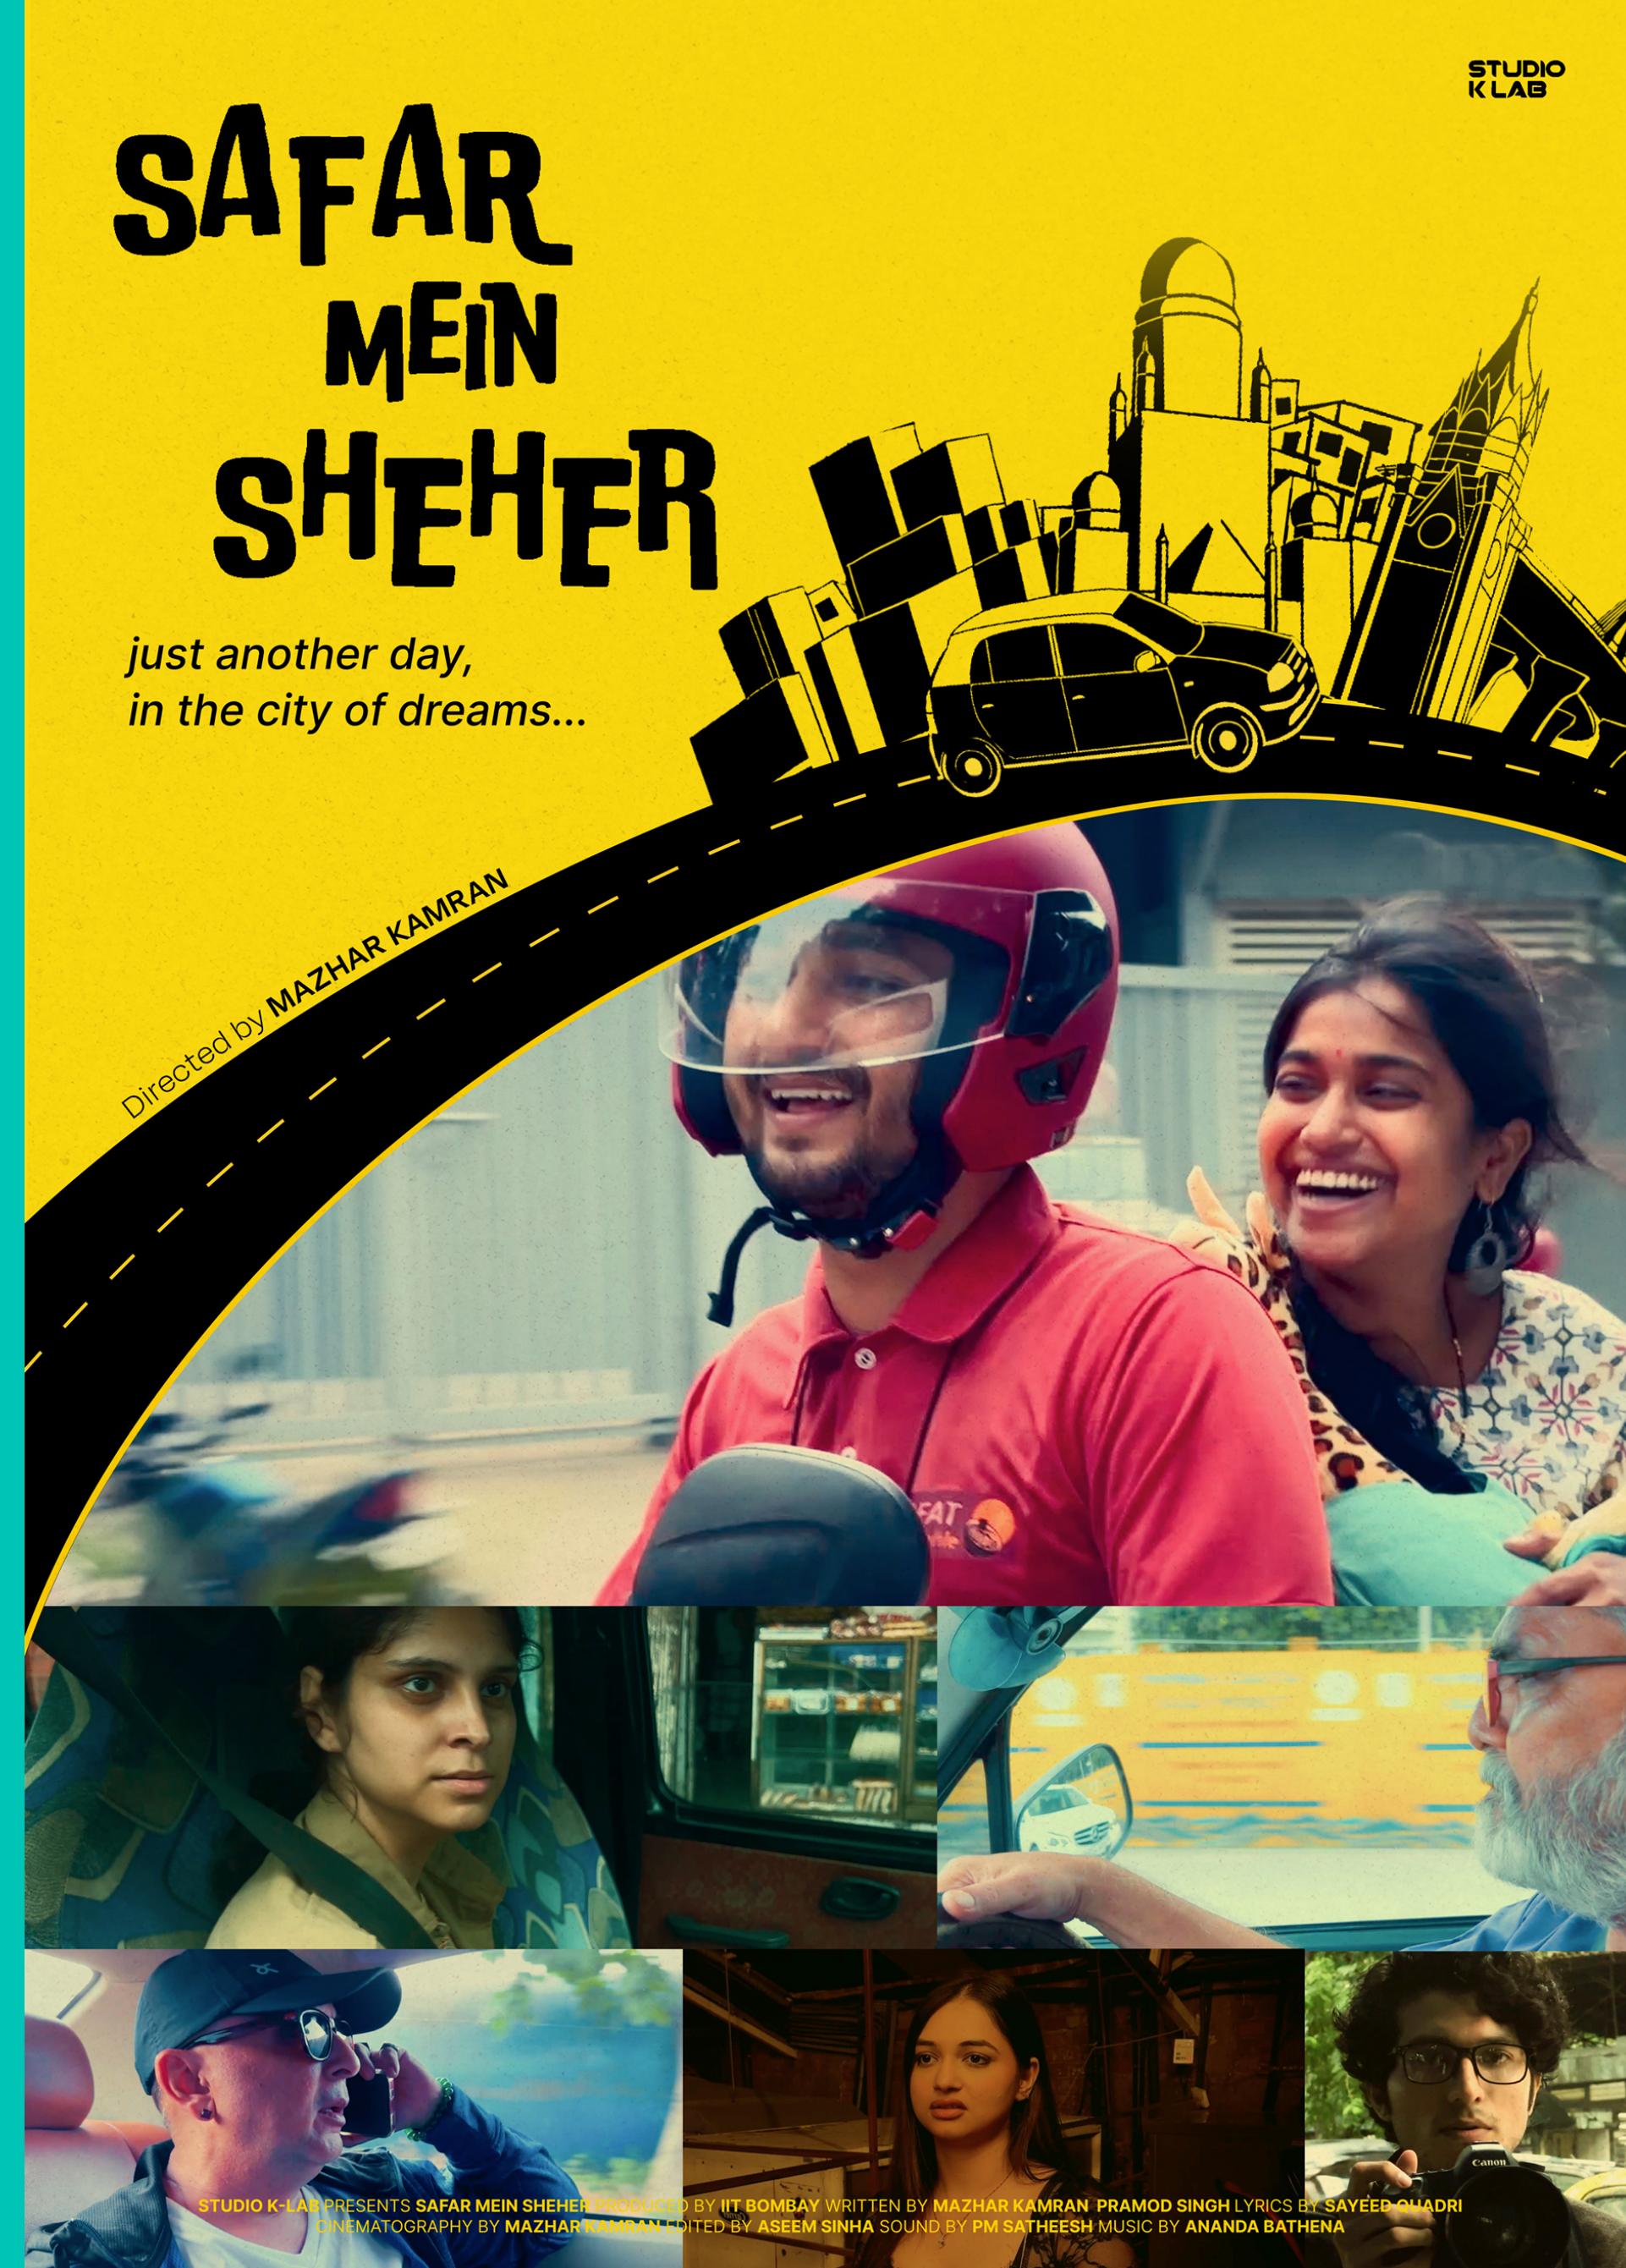

Two girls who are friends, one about to be married, unsettled about the guy her mother has chosen, seek solace in each other.

A female taxi driver finds the strength to live life on her own terms.

A boy from a provincial town, obsessed with Bollywood, rides through the city in his uncle's kaali-peeli taxi.

A call-centre employee gets his speedy new bike, and two thieves are on the lookout for one.

It is just another day in the city of dreams...

SAFAR MEIN SHEHER

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

'Safar mein Sheher' is an exploration of life in any modern city. Mumbai is one city I know closely. We have presented the diversity of the city with a range of characters as they go about their business in a day. A web of life unfolds, with its shares of joys and sadness, gravitas and wackiness.

'Satya', directed by Ram Gopal Verma, is a landmark film of Indian cinema. Mazhar Kamran made his debut in the Indian film industry with this work, as DoP, that shook up the established styles and became a box-office sensation. A work whose iconic status has grown with time. He followed up with more box-office hits such as Masti (Indra Kumar) and Jhankaar Beats (Sujoy Ghosh).

'Mohandas', his directorial debut feature, released by Saregama in India - received wide critical acclaim and featured in official selection at several international film festivals including those at New Delhi (Osian's Cinefan), New York (South Asian International Film Festival), Switzerland (the Fribourg International Film Festival, Austria (the Innsbruck International Film Festival) and San Francisco (the San Francisco International Film Festival).

"Mohandas" was nominated for the Grand Prix at Fribourg and won the Special Jury Prize at IFFI Innsbruck Austria.
